Pottstown's first peace-time contingent of draft selectees yesterday took the first step toward a "hitch" of Army life. Sixteen area men reported to the Army and Air Force recruiting center in Reading for pre-induction physical examinations. Only four will be inducted under the board's November quota. The group, accompanied by Board Clerk

R. Ross Longaker (left foreground), is shown on the way to board a Reading train. At the recruiting station in Reading, T/Sgt. Ernest Weaver gives a blood test to Edward Sabold, Pottstown RD 3, while Van A. Wentz (left), 122 North Hanover street, and Lawrence M. Yerger, Perkiomenville RD 1, await their turn. A heart examination is given LeRoy G. Hoffman, Sassafrasville, by Dr. John German. Getting an ear examination from Dr. German is Joseph L. Yurro Jr., 68 South Charlotte street. The windup was a mental test, with Robert Kummerer, Pottstown RD 3, at the desk in the foreground. Capt. Irvin Kittelsaa supervises the tests at the rear of the room.

SIX NEUTRALS ADVANCE PLAN IN BERLIN CRISIS

Western Allies Reported
'Satisfied' With Proposal;
Reds to Study Resolution

PARIS, Oct. 20 (AP)—A new formula for settling the Berlin crisis was submitted to the big four powers tonight by six "neutral" members of the United Nations Security Council.

Authoritative quarters said the new resolution appeared "eminently satisfactory" to the Western powers. Russia's Andrei A. Vishinsky promised to send the draft to Moscow for study.

One neutral source said Vishinsky had approved the resolution conditionally, but there was no confirmation of this from the Soviet delegation or from any other source.

Some Western sources, while agreeing that the plan offered a possible way out, were cautious about its chances of success.

One high Western official said: "The possibility of a settlement remains, but I would go no further than that."

THE RESOLUTION was reported to recommend that Russia lift the Berlin blockade within 48 hours after the Security Council approved the proposal. The Western powers, on their side, were asked to agree to a meeting of the council of foreign ministers on Berlin and the whole German problem immediately after the blockade is lifted.

One neutral source said the framers of the proposal were hopeful of winning Soviet support by making the points recommendations and not submitting them as demands on the big powers.

This development followed a series of U. N. actions in which the Western powers plan for world atomic controls extending behind the Iron Curtain over the entire globe, and the general assembly's political committee.

THE DAYS TOP developments included:

16 Area Men Put Through Draft Tests

Sixteen area men, Pottstown's first contingent of potential draftees, took complete physical examinations at the U. S. Army and Air Force recruiting center, Reading, yesterday.

Capt. Irvin Kittelsaa, commanding officer, said the physical will be the last they will receive. If they pass and are inducted, they will be sworn into the Army immediately after a brief check-up.

Reports on the physical examinations will be received by local Draft Board 110 as soon as X-ray and blood test results are determined. Capt. Kittelsaa reported. The local board then will notify the men as to their status.

The 16 men met at borough hall at 8:45 o'clock yesterday morning to receive a government transportation request issued by the local board. Van A. Wentz, 172 North Hanover street, one of the group, was placed in charge.

ACCOMPANIED BY R. Ross Longaker, clerk of Local Board 110, the men marched to the Reading station where they boarded the 9:33 to Reading. They were met at the Franklin street station by members of the Army recruiting force and taken to the recruiting office at (Continued on Page Twelve)

GIANT AIRLINER CRASH KILLS 33

Seven Reported Saved
On N. Y.-Bound Plane
Downed in Scotland

PRESTWICK, Scotland, Thursday, Oct. 21 (AP)—A New York-bound Royal Dutch Airlines (KLM) Constellation crashed into a field near here early today and 33 were unofficially reported killed.

KLM officials issued no statement on the casualties, but other authorities fixed the death list at that number. Seven of the 30 passengers and ten crewmen were reported to have survived the flaming crash.

Among the survivors were five men and two women — one an American. All were seriously injured.

The pilot, a noted Dutch flier named Captain Parmentier, (KLM in New York identified the pilot as Koene D. Parmentier, one of Holland's most noted fliers. He was the line's chief pilot. He was the winner of several international air races and had been decorated by Queen Wilhelmina for his contributions to Dutch flying. During the war he flew a bomber out of Britain on raids against German objectives in the occupied Netherlands.)

THE AMERICAN WOMAN was identified as Mrs. Matilda Rohs, of (Continued on Page Twelve)

ZERN ABANDONS
HOMES PROJECT
UNTIL SPRING

Says FHA Regulations
'Priced' Him Out of
Market for This Fall

Builder Warren B. Zern last night declared his plan to start building homes this Fall had collapsed.

Difficulties with Federal Housing authority officials were at the root of his difficulties, he declared.

Zern had planned to construct approximately 100 housing units, in groups of four, six and eight, on a plot of ground north of Prospect street and east of Washington street, for rent or for sale.

During recent weeks of negotiations with the FHA he had believed that his plans would be approved.

But early this week, his hopes were ruined.

ZERN HAD expected approval of homes at a construction cost of approximately $8100. The past Monday that figure was cut to $7100.

"I just can't build houses for anything like $7000 now," Zern declared.

The builder has not given up completely, however.

He still may decide to build homes for rental only, but to do this, he must begin talks with the FHA, under a different set of government rulings.

These will require the submission of new sets of detailed plans, with Zern bearing the additional architect's costs.

If the builder of many medium-rental developments in Pottstown is able to go ahead with these plans, he may start to build in the Spring of 1949, he said last night.

He could not predict the rentals he would have to charge in homes that might be built next year.

Blaze Is Extinguished
In Congested Chimney

A blaze caused by a soot-choked chimney on High street was extinguished last night by the Empire Hook and Ladder company before any damage was done.

The chimney was on the roof of the apartments at 444 High street that are above the Roth Cleaners' store. Smoke was noticed by apartment dwellers at about 11 o'clock.

A bicarbonate of soda stream was poured on the fire from the company's tower ladder under the direction of driver Harry E. Yerger.

THE BLIMP'S itinerary led from the Rosedale section over the heart of town, out to Stowe and then back again.

Heading into a stiff north breeze, the huge helium-filled craft's ability to travel sideways afforded the maximum number of persons a chance to read the releases.

Some of the headlines were: "Local Home Ransacked by Thieves," "Airport Is Assured of Solon Aid," "Russians Arm Cops in Berlin" and "Draft Test Given 16 Local Lads."

Nancy Under Knife, Getting Along Well

Nancy Ann Dalgleish, the 18-year-old spastic whom Pottstown took to its heart 10 months ago, was "resting comfortably" yesterday after her appendix was removed in the Overlook hospital, Summit, N. J.

She first complained of pain about two months ago, while she was undergoing special treatment at the Milton H. Berry Foundation school, in Par Hills, N. J.

Then, Nancy felt better for a while, but this week an examination showed she had appendicitis. Her appendix was removed without complications yesterday morning.

Her family and physician, commenting on her condition, said that hearing from her many friends and acquaintances in and around Pottstown would make her recovery from the operation speedier.

The past December and early January opened residents of the Pottstown area contributed $7456, so that Nancy could have the special treatment she needed to enable her to live like a normal girl.

She was spastic from birth. That meant she had no control over her day things most people take for granted. As she grew older Nancy received some training and hospitaliza-

HOME ENTERED BY PROWLERS; NOTHING STOLEN

Kitchen and Living Room Are Ransacked, But Valuables Not Disturbed

Prowlers who broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ladjanski, 60 South Evans street, ransacked the living room and kitchen early yesterday morning but left the family's valuables untouched.

They opened bureau drawers and cupboards, stirring some of their contents on the floors. If robbery was intended, however, the prowlers missed more than $40 which was out in the open and a wrist watch, a camera, a motion picture projector and two table model radios.

The ransacking was discovered at 4 o'clock yesterday morning when Mrs. John Banay, who lives at home with her parents, got up to pack her husband's lunch for work.

As she entered the living room, she saw the drawers and doors of a small buffet had been opened and part of their contents thrown on the floor. Freshly-ironed clothes in the kitchen and on the living room davenport were scattered about the rooms.

Frightened, Mrs. Banay ran upstairs and awakened her husband and parents. They returned to the lower floor to discover the door on the south side of the house standing open. The key which had been in the lock was lying on the floor.

A CALL TO Desk Sgt. Irvin K. Frederick brought Motor Patrolmen Thomas A. Lawler and Earl Rhoads to the Ladjanski home. According to their report, the door lock was of a type easily opened with a skeleton key. Nothing had been taken, although articles of value were in both rooms. A new wrist watch had been taken from its case, but it was found on the floor near the open kitchen door.

No one heard any noise, nor did the Ladjanski dog which remains in the house at night, bark at any time.

The time of the ransacking was placed within an estimated four-hour period between midnight and (Continued on Page Eleven)

'No Left Turn' Signs Ignored by Many at Two Intersections

Observance of the new bans on left-hand turns in central Pottstown was spotty yesterday.

Police Chief James A. Laubhead said, "I'll probably take a few days before people get used to it," adding that no patrolman had been assigned to watch for violators at High and Hanover streets and at High and Charlotte streets, where the turns are forbidden.

Signs erected the past Tuesday forbade left-hand turns by southbound Hanover street traffic into High street and by eastbound High street motorists into North Charlotte street.

Many times yesterday vehicles were seen ignoring the newly-placed signs.

Council Guarantees Payment of $18,000

By ED ROSENBERG
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Council last night guaranteed the payment of $18,000 by the borough toward the development of the Pottstown Municipal airport.

But of that sum, Pottstown will have to pay less than $7000.

Money raised by the Citizens' Airport committee, The Mercury Airport fund and the refund of $8250 from the land purchase sale will make up the remainder of the borough's share of the estimated $72,000 needed to lay out the runway and develop the field.

Borough Manager Dow L. Sears explained the financial picture to the 15 councilmen at a special meeting last night.

He pointed out that application for the Federal grant had been made nearly two years ago, but that the State funds could be sought formally only after the borough had put up its quarter of the development costs.

"We've nearly come to our goal," he said. "We have to come to council now because the Civil Aeronautics authority has ordered the closing out of funds where no activity is shown. I'm afraid the allocation can't be held much longer."

Sears also explained that more contributions were expected and that since no large sums of money actually would have to be paid out to engineers until next Spring, it was "quite possible" that the borough would pay very little of the total costs.

WITHOUT DISSENT, the councilmen passed, on a roll call vote, a resolution guaranteeing a borough "appropriation" of $18,000, and authorizing Sears to file an application for the State's promised share of the money.

C. Roy Bush, president of council, commented, "I have the assurance of the Pilot club that their endeavors to get the balance will stop even if council passes this resolution tonight."

Herbert N. Majer, president of the Pilot club, told council just before adjournment, "We'll keep on working," as he thanked the members for assuring Pottstown of a municipal airport.

Several members of the club, which has been instrumental in increasing the Pottstown Airport fund to $3829.93, were present during last night's 30-minute special meeting, as well as Leon C. MacMullen, chairman of the Citizens' Airport committee.

BEFORE IT ADJOURNED, council referred to the highway and water committees a letter from Angelo Cefalo, of Philadelphia, regional director of the United Construction workers, an affiliate of the United Mine Workers of America, District 30 (AFL).

Cefalo declared that "a sub-

Trailer Truck Smashes Into Rear Of Halted Vehicle; Driver Injured

A 58-year-old man suffered a long, deep cut of the head at 1 o'clock this morning when his 30-foot trailer truck rammed the rear of an asphalt tank truck on Route 422 at a spurt track crossing just west of Stowe.

Albert Richmond, of Merchantville, N. J., was taken to Memorial hospital by a passing motorist. He was admitted for observation.

The tank truck driver, Raymond Kreker, 35, Stony Creek, Berks county, said he was driving west and had stopped at the crossing of the track leading to the Stowe trap rock quarry.

The trailer truck smashed into the left rear of the tank truck, cutting a hole in its empty tank, smashing a stop light and puncturing a tire.

The entire right front of the trailer was smashed. Traffic was delayed for about ten minutes until flare lights from the trailer were lighted.

William Seyler, 53, of 625 Glasgow street, Stowe, was sent tumbling to the edge of West High street early last night when struck by the side of a truck designed to carry small laboratory animals.

He escaped with two small cuts on the back of the head that were given dispensary (Continued on Page Eleven)

They're Marching Off Again

IT SEEMED like old times to a lot of Pottstownians yesterday. Even to some of those 16 "draftees" who marched away for their physical examinations prior to induction into the armed services.

It was like old times. Almost to the day. Eight years ago — on October 16, 1940 — Pottstown took part in registration day for a peacetime conscription. Now a second peacetime draft begins.

When you consider it, it was much older than eight years. There's nothing new under the sun! For with world peace tottering on a tight rope, America reverts to the oldest form of self-defense — the system of handing together. It is estimated that one out of every 38 men between 19 and 25 years of age in the United States will be drafted this year. By the fall of 1949, between 200,000 and 225,000 men are expected to be in uniform.

America during normal times relied on voluntary enlistment for its military forces. In fact, the soldiers who fought the War for Independence and the Mexican War were volunteers.

The Civil War, however, necessitated a draft. Money bought exemptions for the rich; and bounties lured the poor to enlist.

The young American leaders might have learned a lesson on that score from Napoleon. He permitted wealthy people to buy their way out of his army. As a result the poverty stricken potential cannon fodder reentered in the 1810 draft registration, and thus ensued Napoleon's avid hunt for Refractors, which used more than 40,000 soldiers.

World War I draft in America was handled more efficiently, and it was improved upon by the Selective Service Act of the second World War. On October 16, 1940, a total of 16,500,000 young men marched to their election precinct to register.

While America regards protecting the country as a burden to be shared by the entire population, its rules are a bit more lenient than the first form of conscription. The self-preservation instinct taught prehistoric men to band together for self-defense and aggression; no able-bodied man was exempted; and the man of subnormal physique was liquidated.

The picture is different too from early Egyptian civilization, when it was esteemed a privilege to be a warrior. Only men who owned enough tax-free land to insure adequate support of their families were soldiers.

The same attitude was maintained by the Roman republic. The Roman soldier furnished his own equipment and received no pay. Thus the cavalry was made up of the rich; the infantry of the middle class; and auxiliary branches of the poor. To the poorest of men was assigned the duty of staying at home as "getters of children."

Baseball — With Appetizers

WHATEVER Bill Veck is doing to baseball, there is nothing conservative about it. The President of the Cleveland pennant winners is strictly a wild Indian.

While the brand of baseball he produces will be considered by many persons to be quite a good deal, he does not consider it enough.

"It's got to be fun even when the home club loses," he says, and to that end he has introduced on the shores of Lake Erie the greatest, the most spectacular collection of curiosities ever assembled in one ball park.

Veck has handed out larks, pigeons, doves and cakes of ice at home plate, given away 503 pairs of nylon to top Larry McPhail's 500, caused live snakes to be placed in the laps of beer-filled, snoring fans, had couples married on the field, introduced clowns, and raffled off artificially assorted groups of groups containing such items as a cow with a calf, a sow with pigs, a sway-backed horse, a 200-pound cake of ice, step-ladders, and a case of chickens.

He has staged nights for the population of an entire town, for all the mayors in Ohio, and for an average fan who suggested the idea — Joe Earley Night — with the honoree being presented with a 30-year-old Model T Ford, title to an acre of land under water, a television set, a radio set, an easy chair, luggage, guinea pigs, a bowl of fish, and a brand-new convertible.

Do the fans like it? They broke all attendance records for any place, any time.

But is it baseball? Well, that piece of codfish flying from the top of the totem pole is no banana bantameroie.

It looks like a real success formula as long as the Cleveland fans can keep Bill Veck from swapping off Lou Bourqueau for a lady aerialist who naves by her teeth, and a couple of outfielders.

PUNKIN CORNERS,
October 24.
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:
Wal, I see by the papers where an English woman, married 75 years, says happiness is achieved by always obeying one's husband. Sure reads nice on paper, doesn't it, fellows?

Another item says an erring western motorist paid his traffic fine with a bag containing 1500 pennies. Coppers for the coppers!

And say: New England Conservatory of Music director says kids shouldn't be forced to practice music. That's sound advice to Junior. He'd rather face a seven-man line than fall over a cliff!

Mopin' you air the same,

READERS SAY:

Linfield Can't Keep Pace With Progress, She Says

School Protests Not Surprising

To the Editor: I didn't need to read Wednesday's Mercury to be convinced that the people of Linfield are a generation behind the rest of the world. That town has been a whistle stop for years and wouldn't even be on the map if it weren't for the Kinsey company.

The town's life centers around a couple of bar rooms and a card game at the firehouse.

So I wasn't too much surprised that the old fogies of Linfield tossed a few hookers at the school board's plans to give the township a school that befits any community in this era of progressive education.

I was surprised, however, that anything—even plans for a modern school—could bugge these hillbillies.

I also was a bit taken back by a statement of Mr. James Brownback. He said of one-room schoolhouses: "I got a splendid education in one and went on to law school."

Tut, tut, Mr. Brownback. You know better than to stick your neck out so far. You wouldn't use an argument like that to convince a learned judge in court. But your jury, in this case, is a group of people who look up to an educated man like you for guidance. What you tell them bears weight. Your weak argument can have only one significance—that you represent an opposition group, namely, the township supervisors.

Fortunately, all residents of Limerick township don't think like Mr. Brownback and his crowd. There are many who think more of their children than they do of their cows and hogs. I hope there are enough of them to give the township what it needs—a new school.

WASHINGTON

Parnell, Ferguson 'Smear' Merely a Political Gesture

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 — Attorney General Tom Clark's attempts to "smear" the two anti-Communist investigators on Capitol Hill—Rep. J. Parnell Thomas of New Jersey and Sen. Homer Ferguson of Michigan—are attributed by close-up observers to a desire to offset President Truman's references to their activities as a "red herring."

Together with the Vinson-to-Stalin proposal, the nagging money letter to Bernard M. Baruch and his "selfishness" charge against workers and farmers, if they should vote against him, these are generally regarded as Mr. Truman's most damaging technical blunders in the campaign. If it were to be a tight race these alone might account for his defeat, in the opinion of his aides.

Therefore, the obvious counterattack, which has been used by Republicans as well as Democrats ever since Theodore Roosevelt's day, was to discredit the principals in the anti-red drama at the eastern end of Pennsylvania avenue.

INVESTIGATING. Texas Tom Clark, for instance, has passed out word to Department of Justice correspondents that he is investigating alleged "pay roll irregularities" on the part of Congressman Thomas, who heads the House committee on anti-American activities. His relations of apparent Roosevelt-Truman tolerance toward "Communism" in key places at Washington have been politically disturbing.

In the first place, the head of the "Justice" agency has no right to announce in advance that any individual is "under investigation." Headline indictments of this sort violate the oath of office which every A. G. must take on assuming this office. There should be no publicity of this kind until an indictment is actually handed down by a Grand Jury.

Secondly, Mr. Clark would have to indict one-third of the members of House and Senate, if he found that such political sins as nepotism and payroll manipulation were Federal offenses. Which they are not. The fact is that he would not dare to move against an M. C. because he merely followed an old and recognized Capitol Hill custom.

SITUATION. This analysis of Attorney General Clark's behavior does not constitute a defense or an exoneration of Parnell Thomas' alleged practice of paying off relatives with official moneys and of forcing members of his staff to "kick back" part of their comparatively meager salaries.

SMEAR. The effort to "smear" Senator Ferguson is utterly outrageous, in the opinion of Democratic and Republican associates acquainted with the facts.

It has been charged that he has received "favors" and "gifts" from a Detroit firm, and that Mrs. Ferguson represented the company as a semi-lobbyist at Washington. Here are the facts:

The great corporation supposed to have dominated and corrupted the Ferguson is a $25,000 concern owned by the youngest son who married their daughter, Charles R. Beliz.

He had worked as an aeronautical engineer in the Detroit area. Being an imaginative and aggressive youngster, he saw a chance to enter the furnace and air-conditioning field in one of Detroit's growing suburbs. But he did not have the necessary capital.

CRIME. Senator Ferguson loaned him $10,000. Mrs. Ferguson sold a piece of property that provided an additional $10,000. Mr. Beliz raised the remainder of the $25,000 capital. The Ferguson's hold stock amounting to the total which they have advanced.

Thus, for doing what any father and mother would do for their daughter and her husband, they are shamefully "smeared."

To Foes of Level System

To the Editor: May I extend an invitation to "Puzzled Mother" ("Mother Attacks Inequality of School Level System," Readers Say, Sept. 14) and "Disgusted Mother" ("Criticizes School Levels," Readers Say, Sept. 20) to attend the meeting of the Central Parent-Teachers' association in the Washington school building at 8 o'clock Thursday night, Oct. 21.

In your letters to The Mercury, you mothers expressed your dislike for and lack of understanding of the level system as practiced in the Pottstown schools.

On Thursday night, Harvard E. Posnanski, elementary school principal, will explain the system and, after his talk, will discuss the various viewpoints and answer parents' questions on the subject.

This meeting will give you mothers an opportunity to learn more about the system which to you seems "unfair" and "buckwheatish." Perhaps it is because of misunderstanding that you have this attitude, but I feel confident that after listening to Mr. Posnanski you, too, will appreciate the value of the level system.

Waitress Needs Her Tips

To the Editor: This is in answer to the letter written by the person who does not believe in tipping waitresses ("He's Against Tipping," Readers Say, Oct. 11).

The average waitress makes between 12 and 20 dollars per week. Naturally, she must depend on her tips to see her through.

I ask you, could you live on this amount, during these times, comfortably?

As for waitresses smiling only at customers of whom they anticipate tips, you are greatly mistaken.

All the girls with whom I have ever worked have smiling the same with one customer as another. It would be stupid indeed for a waitress to act too informal with a strange customer.

Tipping would not be necessary, it's true, if all waitresses were paid a general wage, one which would cover her needs.

With prices and the living standard on the high level it is today, it would be difficult for the restaurant owners to operate on this basis.

Pottstown WAITRESS

Marked by Jealousy

To the Editor: Such letters as those of P. J. M. ("Dog Loving Has Its Limits," Readers Say, Oct. 11) and Children Before Animals ("Muzzle Animal Lovers," Readers Say, Oct. 16) could be written by warmongers. Wars are built on hate, greed and jealousy. And who is more jealous and greedy than the people who hate to see an animal treated decently?

I, too, know a woman who has many dogs because she hasn't learned how to say "no" to a stray. I've heard her lied on, cheated and stolen from because she has the power and courage to stand alone. In fact, I was asked to sign a petition against her and the dogs, and by people who had once defamed each other's characters and who were now united into one big, happy family because of their one motive in common—jealousy.

And they call this getting along with each other! Naturally, I did not join the pack of wolves, as one police officer called them. No more would I sign such a petty piece of paper against a flower grower who hides his evilment beneath a mask of flower love.

They were a Boston romance. . . .

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

TINA P., 22, is secretary to an attorney.

But, Dr. Crane, my home life is miserable," she complained bitterly. "My father seems to have a peculiar attitude regarding men."

"Although I am a normal young woman, with reasonable charms, my father absolutely refuses to let me have a date. 'He always insists on knowing exactly where I go, whom I'll be with, if there is to be a man in the party, then he violently forbids my going.'"

"The very thought of my being in the company of another man is absolutely intolerable to him. I've tried to make him understand that I should have dates, and the social life common to girls of my age, but I can't alter his viewpoint."

"What's wrong with him, and what can I do?"

MANY FATHERS have this same intense, jealous regard for their only daughters. Tina is simply a younger edition of her mother.

And her father has fused his emotions regarding Tina, so they are a mixture of a normal father's regard, plus his old sweetheart attachment for her mother.

He doesn't realize this fact, consequently, and many of you suggest such a situation, but it is time we looked facts in the face.

For many parents are doubly jealous of their child's suitor for this very reason. A man who invests a double portion of love and attention upon any young woman, whether daughter, sister or sweetheart, almost invariably is twice as jealous of any other suitor who vies for her favor.

The father may rationalize to hide his jealousy and thereafter claim he is only interested in her own welfare. Actually, however, he is really afraid that a younger man can overbid him.

Let a girl of 22, who is a high school graduate, who has earned a business college diploma, and is satisfactorily handling her duties as a legal stenographer, certainly is an adult and should be capable of arranging her own social affairs.

And if by this time she isn't competent to select her boy friends wisely, then more years of parental domination will seldom improve her judgment.

For if parents haven't accomplished the proper sex education of their children by the time they are grammar school graduates, then these parents have failed in one of their important functions.

A girl who has been correctly educated by her parents will usually be safe in masculine company. Ignorance, not wisdom, produces immorality and shame.

Prudish parents are thus actually contributing to the delinquency of their own children.

I urged Tina to have a final, straight-from-the-shoulder talk with her father, and call him bluff. She can then live at the Y.W.C.A., if he blindly insists on his jealous coercion of her life.

FIGURES DON'T LIE, OR DO THEY?

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 20 — Mark Goodson, producer of "Stop the Music" learned about show business at the University of California in a small group which sure turned out to be a big group in later years. In the bunch were Gregory Peck, Ralph Edwards and Kathleen Winsor. Goodson is a Phi Beta Kappa—but you don't have to know much to win the Panama Canal or other similar prizes on his air-show! Loved the crack we heard over the ether the other night, to wit: "Someone should start a new radio program called 'Stop the Money'—and give away the music!"

HIS COSTUMES for "Outpost in Morocco" are so glamorous, they're calling him "Gorgeous George Raffin." The next big revival song will be Irving Berlin's oldie, "Say It Isn't So" . . . Sally Truex, 19 year old daughter of Ernest Truex has become a Conover model . . . Edmund Lowe heading for San Francisco and plastic surgery on his right hand . . . Bob Ecton, the pianist-composer, and Barbara Wright, the lyricist are very much in tune.

IN A PRODUCER'S office, Gale Gordon saw a sign reading, "We Have Much To Be Grateful For Pay Your Income Taxes With a Smile." Gordon flipped, "That's a great idea — IP Uncle Sam will only let us do it!" . . . Faith Domergue, the H. Hughes star of "Vendetta" (if it ever comes out) is in Argentina and will lay there until her baby is born around Xmas time. Her spouse is directing a picture there. . . . When Errol Flynn makes his first independent produced picture, "The Buccaneer," he'll film most of it in the West Indies. Everyone came to "The Kinsey Report"—forgetting that two other authors are also credited with the book. A recent national poll supposedly proved that Kinsey's name is about the best known in the land—with half the population aware of it! Guess who came out second? Joe Louis!

SELENE WALTERS, who recently divorced her husband, a month before she had her baby, is doing the town with Gene Bohr, who made all that gold out of aluminum. John Calvert, the actor (you're welcome) and magician, will independently produce his own story, "The Charlatan" at RKO. He already signed former top-star Ramon Navarro for a top role in it. Calvert has also just acquired the world-rights to re-issue "The Birth of a Nation" and well be he makes a fortune at it. He's building a fleet of huge ballyhoo trucks (complete with neon lights) to tour the country with the film in good, ole knock-down, drag-out showmanish fashion. . . . Hmmm, man. . . . Decca records has a completed, but unreleased album of Robert Mincum crooning tunes from "Rachel and the Stranger."

JOHN DALL has been signed for the Charles Boyer play, "Red Shoes." Neighbors are gabbing about the Victor Mature's tiffs. . . . Joe Louis newest form of recreation is rehearsing with the Four Tunes, the zingy singing group. The boys report the champ can really swing it, too. . . .

EX-teacher EX-baritone

Margaret Chase Smith, the first woman ever elected to the United States senate without having first been appointed to fill an unexpired term, was once a school teacher in Skowhegan, Maine. Mrs. Chase then became an office executive on a newspaper, and later held executive positions in other business offices. She became a member of the 77th to 80th United States congresses from 1941, to serve until 1949. In 1930 the then Margaret Chase was married to Clyde H. Smith, who died in 1940. Her home is still in Skowhegan, Me.

Lauritz Melchior, star of the Metropolitan Opera company and motion picture actor and singer, is famous for his tenor roles. Melchior began his singing career as a baritone, however. He was born in Copenhagen, Denmark, and studied music from early childhood. At the age of 18 he began to study singing seriously, and four years later, while he was still at school, he was offered the baritone role of Germont in La Traviata. A friend finally convinced him that his voice was tenor, and by dint of study Melchior changed to the heroic range in which he is world famous. He has been in the United States since 1926. His first wife died, and his second wife is Maria Hacker, a former European film star.

Pottstown Sketches

"I should think that a big old established hospital like this, Miss June Van Horn, could turn out a better job than that."

Another form of treatment is the application of solid carbon dioxide. This is a substance that freezes the growth and speeds up its disappearance. A great deal of skill is required in carrying out this treatment so as not to produce a great deal of scarring.

A form of treatment which seems to be successful in most cases is the injection of sclerosing or scarring materials, such as sodium morrhuate. This treatment is easily carried out and the procedure is in no way dangerous. This method of treatment has no advantage insofar as speeding up the rate of removal of the growth is concerned, but it usually results in fewer scars. The results are best when the patient is treated early in life and the growth has been present for only a short time.

When such a growth is present, it is advisable that it be carefully studied by a specialist, who will determine the best method of treatment. In all instances, the earlier the treatment is given, the better will be the result.

Wolf Buys Shop...

Songs for Speeders...

NEW OWNER — Harold Wolf, a native Pottsonian who forsook this community for a fling at business in Philadelphia for a few years, came back home yesterday. When he did, he came back as the owner of the Pottstown China and Glass shop at 155 High street. Wolf, who was born on Beech street and graduated from Pottstown High school with the class of 1926, purchased the china shop from Mrs. Ada M. Ackerman. She was proprietress of the store for 13 years. Previous to that Miss Pauline Friedman operated the shop after the death of her parents. Wolf is a son of Adolph and the late Regina Wolf. His brother Maurice is a Walnut street dentist. For a while Harold Wolf was in the cleaning and dyeing business here, then went to Philadelphia in 1935. He is married, the father of two children, soon will bring his family back to Pottstown.

WARNING — Former Pottsonian who's now living in Quakertown sends some hymns for speeders. He said he found them in a church paper. Written by a preacher, they're for the lad who drives at 25 miles an hour: "I Am But a Stranger Here. Heaven Is My Home." At 45 miles an hour: "Nearer My God to Thee." At 55 miles an hour: "I'm Nearing the Port and Will Soon Be Home." At 65: "When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder I'll Be There." And at 75: "Lord, I'm Coming Home."

REPORT — Only 250 listened to Henry Wallace at Reading Tuesday night. . . . Reports are leaking out that internal revenue agents are about to check the books of used car merchants for tax law violations. . . . Lloyd Koppel, former Mercury newsman and now public relations expert for the Philadelphia Electric company, was in Pottstown yesterday getting material for a story on this town for his house journal. . . . Females shouldn't worry about their scanty attire come the wintry blasts. You now have expert medical opinion on your side. Go ahead, say the docs, and dress in as flimsy a get-up as you can stand because the closer one's skin temperature is to the weather temperature, the less that person feels the cold.

GIVE AWAY DEPT — There's a female bird dog, part cocker spaniel, looking for a new home. It's about nine months old, well trained, according to its owner, David Schoenly, 674 Hawthorne avenue. Call 2417-J. . . . Speaking of dogs, the American Medical Association says long-haired dogs are less apt to contract rabies than short-haired ones and the reason's an odd one. The long hair frequently removes the deadly saliva from the teeth of the attacking dog which is already infected with hydrophobia.

FARE — Now Washington says the newspapers finance those campaign trains that traversed the country. Neither Truman nor Dewey, nor their running mates, would be able to finance the expense of these special trains were it not

Stomach of Girl, 9, Pierced by Splinter

Marilyn Keim, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Keim, Sixth avenue and Gay street, Royersford, was able to return to school yesterday, following an accident Tuesday in which a two-inch splinter pierced the skin of her stomach.

Marilyn was the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Keim to have been injured within a month. Her elder brother, Charles, 12, was hurt while playing football and was admitted to Phoenixville hospital with an infected leg. He has since recovered.

Tuesday, Marilyn was playing on the see-saw at the Adams school playgrounds when the splinter penetrated her skin and protruded under a rib, as she was aligning from the device.

After unsuccessful efforts to remove it herself, she was aided by her teacher, who took her home. Later Dr. E. H. Platte, Collegeville, removed the splinter and gave her an injection to prevent infection.

YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—A State highway worker who earns $37.60 a week, received a $500 reward today for finding $11,000 worth of diamonds on Monday.

The diamonds, owned by Mrs. Amanda Secarist, York, were lost the evening of Oct. 3.

Byerts said he expects to buy his wife a new washing machine with the reward money.

2 Strip Youth on Street; Police Okay Their Act

SEATTLE, Oct. 20 (AP)—Passers-by looked on in amazement today as two men on a downtown street rapidly stripped a third, younger man of his clothing.

One of them called police as the youth was left standing in a doorway, clad only in shirt, shorts and shoes.

Patrolman Alex Cadler received a logical explanation for the whole thing when he arrived. William Houghtman, 56, explained that a suit of clothes was stolen from his room. He and his roommate, Mark McNeely, were walking along the street when they saw the young man wearing Houghtman's suit. So they forthrightly took back Houghtman's property.

Man Who Killed Wife Is Sentenced to Hang

EVERETT, Wash., Oct. 20 (AP)—Superior Judge Ralph C. Bell sentenced Wayne L. Williams, 31-year-old former Tulsa, Okla., aircraft worker, to hang today for killing his wife the past June.

He set no date for the execution. Williams was convicted of first degree murder for shooting his wife, Halle Lucille, 27, to death, and throwing her body over a cliff south of here. The jury recommended the death penalty.

Wallace Says Progressive Party Here To Slay, Renews Assault on Aid Plan

WILKES-BARRE, Oct. 20 (AP)—Henry Wallace wound up a 9500-mile cross-country campaign tonight with the assertion his Progressive party is here to stay and will "become the first party of this country."

"We're going to take our government back from the bankers and the generals and give it back to the people where it belongs," the Progressive presidential candidate said.

Declaring he "feels a little sorry" for President Truman, Wallace said "he's going to take the worst looking any Democratic candidate has ever taken."

"Truman," he continued, "stopped being President the day he started firing New Dealers and inviting company men into the cabinet. You might say Harry Truman abdicated."

WALLACE DESCRIBED the Marshall plan as "the biggest steal in the history of our country," and said "it's run by corporation men for the benefit of corporations. And as always happens when those men operate without check, the people suffer. The people of Europe and the people of America both suffer."

"Well," he said, "there's only one thing to do about it: get rid of the corporation men. Take the bankers out of government and send them back to their banks. They can't even keep their own banks from going under—we all remember what happened in 1930."

It is time we sweep the rascals out. We can bring prices down, provide decent homes to live in at a price people can afford, end the threat of war.

"We were on the way toward that goal under Franklin Roosevelt and we can reach that goal in our time. It means going forward from the New Deal using what we learned under Roosevelt to build an even greater America than we dreamed of in those days."

Duff to Broadcast His Stand on Dewey

HARRISBURG, Oct. 20 (AP)—Gov. James H. Duff said today he will tell "what I think about Dewey and Warren" next Tuesday, Oct. 26.

The Republican Governor made the comment when asked about a handbill of the Democratic State committee quoting him as saying last June 21 that Governor Dewey, then a candidate for the GOP Presidential nomination, "looks like a man without principle to me."

"My attitude will be stated in a statewide radio speech from Harrisburg next Tuesday," Duff told newsmen when asked about the handbill. "Anyone wanting to know what I think about Dewey and Warren can listen to me."

Duff has actively supported the GOP ticket since the Republican convention although during the convention he was a leader of a stop-Dewey movement and broke with other Pennsylvania leaders on the issue.

The handbill, thousands of which are being distributed by the Democratic State committee, read:

"Pennsylvanians! Here is what the Republican Governor of Pennsylvania says about the Republican candidate for President:

"Dewey turns up in this State with the vicious support of the people who have opposed every progressive step the Republican party has taken. I am driven to the conclusion that Dewey will promise anybody anything if it will make him President of the U. S. Dewey looks like a man without principle to me."

The handbill added that the quotation was taken from the June 21 issue of Time magazine, published just before the opening of the GOP national convention.

Beer Trucks Convoeyed Past New York Pickets

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Police escorted New Jersey beer trucks into the city today as striking drivers here claimed the first break in their week-old dispute with the city's brewers.

The strikers announced that a Bronx firm had agreed to "sit down and talk things over."

Paul O'Day, counsel for the striking members of the CIO United Brewery Workers, said the Ebling Brewery had agreed to negotiate with the drivers.

The city's beer drought was relieved somewhat as police escorted 370 beer trucks through picket lines into the city, mostly from New Jersey.

Marshall Aide Says Reds Must Be Taught To Co-operate or Forced to Stand Aside

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall's top policy adviser declared tonight that if the Soviets refuse to see the "wisdom" of international co-operation "then we must persuade them, in their own interest, to stand aside."

In a speech at the New York Herald Tribune forum, George F. Kennan declared that the conflict which exists in the United Nations—now meeting in Paris—is not between the United States and Russia. Rather he declared:

"It is a conflict between the majority of the U. N. members, acting in support of the charter, and a group of governments who refuse to abide by its provisions or to recognize the over-riding international obligation which the charter constitutes."

KENNAN IS DIRECTOR of the policy planning staff of the State department and formulator of the Government's "containment" policy designed to prevent Russian expansion. He gained fame months ago as the "Mr. X" author of a magazine article describing the containment policy. He was identified as the writer some time after the article was published.

In defining possible means of progress toward a stronger and more effective U. N. organization, Kennan said in his speech here:

"Either we must find means to bring wisdom to those whose thoughts are today oriented solely to the pursuit of political greatness, in the form of world domination, or, if we cannot do this, and if these people remain stubbornly unwise, then we must persuade them, in their own interest, to stand aside and to permit the other peoples of the world to proceed at last with this business of the development of international association, for which the conditions of life in our time cry out so urgently and which have been so long delayed."

(In Washington, State department officials said that this was not a veiled threat of action to throw the Russians out of the United Nations. The meaning of Kennan's statement, these informants said, is that either the Russians ought to take a constructive part in the attempts to get some collective system working effectively or else they should be persuaded to stop using obstructive methods. The officials mentioned, as obstructing methods, Russia's use of the veto in the Security Council, and her opposition to the Marshall plan).

AT ANOTHER POINT in his talk, Kennan said that the United States as a powerful supporter of the United Nations must act in such a manner as to "convince the skeptical, as words have thus far failed to do, that the road of international collaboration is after all the fastest, the most practical, and the safest of the paths of national policy."

"And where people are not open to argument on considerations of the common good, then they must be shown that this same conclusion flows even from the narrowest and most embittered sense of self-interest, which it does."

Tire on Jet Plane Blows, Kills Student Repairman

CHANUTE FIELD, Ill., Oct. 20 (AP)—An Air Force student was killed and another critically injured today when a tire they were removing from a jet propelled airplane exploded.

The Technical Training Command center here withheld their names pending notification of next of kin.

A Kiss for Father's Best Man

Hollywood is the setting for this unusual bridal group. The principals are Thomas W. Gosser and Moselle Britton Dinehart, widow of actor Alan Dinehart. Here, the bride kisses William Gosser, 8, who served as his dad's best man, while the groom shades hands with Alan Dinehart III, who gave his mother away.

Driver Killed as Trailer Overturns and Burns

WESTVILLE, N. J., Oct. 20 (AP)—A York truck driver was fatally burned today when his loaded tractor-trailer skidded on a soft dirt patch alongside paved Route 44 and overturned.

Dead was Erwin Eugene Landis Jr., of York, a driver for the Buck Express Inc. of Harrisburg.

New Jersey State police said Landis apparently tried to pass a car and ran off the road near here.

The truck jack-knifed with the tractor section landing on top of the cab. The vehicle burst into flames immediately.

Landis was pinned inside.

Hunter Gets Bang-Bang In Bagging First Deer

PARISH, N. Y., Oct. 20 (AP)—P. Don Sweet opened the New York state deer season today with a bang.

While hunting in woods near this northern New York community, Sweet sat down by a tree. A bullet fired by another hunter hit the dirt in front of him and ricocheted into the pocket of Sweet's leather jacket. The shot shattered a compass in the pocket but Sweet was not injured.

He looked up and saw what the other hunter had been aiming at. Sweet sized and downed the 125-pound, four-point buck.

WOMAN DIES IN CRASH

BOROUGH AID —

stantial number of borough employees had indicated their desire to join the union, and asked for a conference to discuss union recognition.

Bush disclosed that the past Monday night he, Sears, Gerald J. Daly, chairman of the highway and sewer committee, and Borough Solicitor Carroll L. Rutter, had met with Peter Schneider, of Stowe, a representative of the union.

In the informal meeting, Bush narrated, it was learned that 31 hourly workers of the highway and water departments had signed union cards.

STEPS LEADING to union recognition could be an election sponsored by the National Labor Relations board, one sponsored by the State Labor board or one held by a citizen of Pottstown.

An NLRB election was not necessary, Bush said, since the workers were not engaged in inter-State activities, and it was impossible to say, since some District 50 leaders have not signed a non-Communist oath, as called for by the Taft-Hartley Act.

Bush presented four possible courses to council: Recognize the union immediately; join in State or local election; refer the letter to the proper committees, or make a statement of opposition to unionization.

A motion by William H. Reifmeyer, Sixth ward, that the matter be referred to the committees concerned—highway and water—was passed unanimously.

COUNCIL ALSO approved an agreement between the borough and the Brookside Homes corporation, calling for the payment on account of $4 per front foot for the sewer constructed under Washington street, from Wilson to Prospect streets.

If the final costs are more than $4 a foot, the home owners will pay the difference, council was told, while if they are less, the borough will refund the money.

Present last night were Councilmen J. Max Creswell, West ward; William Romich, Second ward; George P. Ruyak, Third ward; William B. Traddell and Harold Spahr, Fourth ward; Ralph Weiss and Daniel C. Kern, Fifth ward.

Also, Reifmeyer, Sixth ward; J. Wayne Knause and C. Raymond Eppelheimer, Seventh ward; Allen K. Davidheiser and William F. Lamb Sr., Eighth ward; Bush and Daly, Ninth ward; and W. Mark Hennicks, Tenth ward.

The five absentees were Earl R. Strange, West ward; Ellington B. Heck, Second ward; Peter J. Lawler, Third ward; Mahlon F. Frick, Sixth ward; and Clinton H. Miller, Tenth ward.

AFTER THE COUNCIL session, members of Creswell's water committee met to discuss the purchase of insurance for the filter plant, pumping station and auxiliary equipment of the water department.

The old Pottstown Gas and Water company, from which the borough bought the water works in September, 1947, never had insurance, it was brought out, although the borough had the property insured on a temporary basis after it took over.

A new plan will call for a three-year policy, Sears said after the one and one-half hour discussion.

Sanatoga Grangers Are Entertained by Kimberton Group

Kimberton Grange last night staged the program at a regular meeting of Sanatoga Grange. The house was packed with 83 grangers.

The highly varied program followed a shortened business meeting and routine announcements.

Mrs. Robert Windolph, principal speaker, told the crowd that the vitamin-content in vegetables varied according to the state in which they were grown.

The difference is caused by varying sunshine, she explained.

ANOTHER SPEAKER declared that 3000 members of farm families perished in fires the past year. Most of them were women and children, she said. She urged fire protection and safety vigilance.

Ernest Hoffman sang two Irish ballads. Several solos and recitals and a one-act play with a cast of 12 were given.

Russell Scheib, master of the visiting grange, had charge of the program.

Edward Scheffer was inducted as a member of Sanatoga Grange and it was announced that the grange's annual Halloween party will be held Saturday, Nov. 6 at 8 o'clock.

tion, but progress was slow.

In December, 1947, it seemed that even that little progress must stop. Her family had difficulties paying the enormous hospital bills that came without halt.

When Nancy's case was made known through The Mercury, thousands of dollars quickly rolled in, insuring her continued good care.

For the first three months of 1948 Nancy was in a physiotherapy clinic in Philadelphia.

The past April 1 she was moved to a Berry Foundation school in Far Hills, N. J., an institution designed to help spastics and persons similarly afflicted.

Training there consisted first of putting braces on Nancy, from her shoulders to her ankles.

Gradually, as she learned to co-ordinate her muscles, the braces were removed. Now, she is free of the impediments from her shoulders to her hips.

Nancy can feed herself soft food, her speech is improving and her progress, although gradual, cheers her.

treatment in Pottstown hospital, where he was taken in a Good Will ambulance.

The driver of the truck was Carl Zartman, 19, of Douglassville, RD. 2. He told Motor Patrolman Louis M. Berger that he was driving west on the highway at 6:55 o'clock when the accident happened.

Zartman told police he was walking west on the highway near Brookside street. He said the truck was between the first and second lanes of Brookside street. The truck swung into the third lane, to the left when he saw the car.

THE PEDESTRIAN WAS struck and thrown to the shoulder of the road on the west end of the Brookside street intersection. Made of light metal, the rear was crushed for transport of the man or his goods.

At the time of the accident, Zartman was using the truck to carry his 14-year-old brother, Henry, home from an accordion lesson in Pottstown. The truck is owned by their father, M. A. Zartman.

A TRACTOR-TRAILER truck and a car collided at High and Hanover streets yesterday morning when John A. Brooke, 214 Chestnut street, the driver of the car, failed to signal for a left hand turn.

Brooke was driving east on High street in the first lane of traffic after backing out from in front of the Texas Hot Wiener shop. Noting that although the light was green, westbound traffic was backed, he attempted to make a left-hand turn onto Hanover street.

As he swung across the center lane of traffic, his car was struck by the truck driven by Max Knepp, 3414 Union.

Knepp told Motor Patrolman Thomas A. Lauer he was traveling east in the center lane. As he approached the intersection on the green light, Brooke cut his car diagonally in front of him to make the left hand turn. The right front part of the truck's bumper crashed into the side of the car.

BROOKE ADMITTED to Lauer that he failed to signal for the turn because he had seen the westbound traffic was backed. He did not see Knepp's truck approaching from the rear, he said.

There was no visible damage to the truck according to Lauer's report, but the left front fender and front of Brooke's car were damaged. The time of the accident was set at 7:25 o'clock.

French Troops Quell Riots by Miners In Strikebound Pts

PARIS, Oct. 20 (AP) — Sixty to 80 truckloads of troop reinforcements were rushed into the coal mine area of South Central France to quell violence tonight as France's strike troubles grew.

Fifty persons were injured when 1200 factory workers and striking miners fought with police and troops at St. Etienne. Police and troops for a time were cornered under a bridge and were pelted with stones.

Miners' wives joined in the attack and five of them were among the 32 finally arrested.

From 6000 to 10,000 troops already were in the area before additional troops were sent tonight.

MEANWHILE, RAIL traffic along the Riviera was disrupted by a 24-hour regional strike ordered by Communist unions as a demonstration of sympathy with the miners who have been on strike 17 days.

The General Confederation of Labor's Communist leaders called for an unlimited general strike in the Paris department, northeast of Toulouse, which has 297,000 inhabitants.

At Carmaux, in that department, several hundred miners halted a police train enroute to Carmaux, to take control of a power plant serving mines.

Communist labor bosses ordered coal handling dockers to refuse to unload incoming coal, most of it American.

KOREAN REVOLT —

and 20 to 30 more Korean army officers at Yosu were killed, Lee said. The home ministry estimates 100 police died in Yosu, 300 others in Suncheon.

Lee, who also is defense minister, said the outbreak was planned months ago by Communists. These elements made a connection with extreme rightist politicians who sought to incite the army to overthrow the government," he said. He did not name the politicians.

MEANWHILE, IN the troubled area, the prime minister said the rebel band had divided at Suncheon after moving up from Yosu, 20 miles to the south, in a command-deer train. Part of the insurgents headed toward Namwon, 30 miles north of Suncheon; part drove toward Kwangju, capital of South Cholla province.

However, he said, the rebels learned of loyal army units rushing to intercept them and shifted toward the Chiri mountains, one of South Korea's highest ranges, to the east of Namwon and northeast of Suncheon.

Lee made no reference to the situation at the seaport of Yosu earlier. Korean army headquarters here said it presumably was held by insurgents.

SOUTH KOREA was under martial law. Strong troop and police detachments were ordered to the scene of the revolt.

"The revolt in the new republic, founded only Aug. 15, came as Russia announced it was pulling troops out of North Korea.

No large rebel force has arrived at any point where the Korean army has concentrated to halt movements toward Kwangju, capital of South Cholla province, at the southwest corner of Korea.

Korean army sources have expected a battle in Kwangju. They said, however, the rebels avoided making a stand against loyal soldiers as they made their way through Suncheon yesterday.

These sources blamed a "Communist cell" in the Yosu garrison for the outbreak. They said the "cell" leader was arrested recently and his followers may have sought retaliation against the authorities.

Officials in Seoul did not regard the uprising as a widespread army plot. They said its army connection seemed to be merely a "cell" of possibly 40 soldiers in the Yosu garrison who persuaded 600 to 800 others to join.

OTHER CLUB members who loathed their time and cars were Mrs. John Basco, Mrs. Harry Wolf, Mrs. Herbert N. Maier and Harry Schneider.

Once again officials of the Pilot club, speaking for the club, repeated their war-cry that "pilots never give up and insisted they would carry on the drive.

They will continue solicitations, they said, even after last night's announcement that the borough will guarantee the remaining amount of the $3150.

"We want to save the borough as much money as possible," said Herbert N. Maier, president.

PAUL MILLER, scoutmaster, and Stanley Boyer, assistant scoutmaster, organized the troop for the drive.

The Pilot club will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock in Art's diner, West High street, to recap on their finances after engaging in two drives. Members also will hear a reading of their newly-written by-laws.

The scouts who gave unsparingly of their time that Pottstown may march in step with progress were, Edwin Corley, Ledy Gaugler, Matthias Yanos, LaVerne Gaugler, Richard Bechtel, Edward Mead, Richard Levensgood, Dels West, Donald Yanos and Gerald Deiner.

Those accepted for military service will be subject to induction 21 days after the examination, but it is expected that not more than four will be taken in Pottstown's November quota when the draft gets underway.

The others, rejected for service, will be reclassified 4-F by local board 110.

BERLIN PLAN —

atomic controls. The negative votes were from the six-nation Soviet bloc. Ten abstained and one was absent.

2. By a vote of 39 to 6 the Soviet bloc lost a bitter battle for Russian proposals calling for simultaneous treaties banning the atom bomb and establishing international control. Seven abstained. The Russians said they would force a fight to the finish on their atomic proposals on the floor of the general assembly.

3. In another U. N. action on Palestine the social committee decided to hear a report on the plight of 472,000 Arab refugees from the Holy Land warfare. Dr. Ralph Bunche, the acting mediator, submitted a $30,000,000 plan for giving succor to the refugees. He said thousands would die from exposure unless they get immediate relief.

POSTPONEMENT OF Palestine debate in the political committee came when it voted 34 to 11 with 10 abstentions to take up a Mexican proposal for the major powers to compose their differences.

In the climax to more than two weeks of bitter wrangling over atomic issues the 58-member political committee voted first on Russia's plan. Then it approved the Western powers' plan in an action which is tantamount to final approval in the assembly. The same delegates on the committee sit in the assembly and they fight most of their battles in the committee.

Approval of the Western powers' plan for atomic energy control came when the committee gave its overwhelming endorsement to a Canadian resolution including these features:

1. Approves the majority reports of the U. N. Atomic Energy commission as the necessary basis for establishing an effective system of international control of atomic energy. Russia has objected to the inspection features of this plan as violating her sovereignty.
2. Asks the United States, Britain, France, Russia, China and Canada to consult together to determine if there is a basis for agreement on international control of atomic energy and report back to the next general assembly.

PLANE CRASH —

New Jersey. She was taken to the nearby Kilmarnock Royal infirmary. Hospital attendants said she was badly hurt.

An eyewitness said "her clothes were on fire when she was dragged out of the plane. They pulled her clothes off and beat out the flames." The infirmary said she was in a "dangerous condition."

A majority of the 33 were trapped in the burning wreckage. Others, however, were thrown clear, some as far as 50 yards.

Among the other survivors were the Dutch air hostess and one of the crew.

THE CAUSE of the crash was termed a mystery, although it was presumed the plane struck a high tension cable while circling low to land. Later it plowed through telephone wires, disrupting communications.

John Adams, Ayrshire miner who was one of the first of a rescue party to reach the wrecked plane, told reporters the flames prevented rescuers from reaching passengers trapped in the burning fuselage.

"We had heard their cries as we were crossing the fields," he said. "Some of the bodies of both the living and the dead were thrown clear of the wreckage."

"We could hardly distinguish the dead from the survivors. However we carried all of them clear and laid them near the roadside, covering them with our coats and jackets."

THE DUTCH AIRLINES hostess, Elsie Fey of Amsterdam, was badly burned. She was taken to the Kilmarnock infirmary.

The plane, named the Nijmegen, was some 10 to 15 miles from Prestwick when it struck the high tension wire, plunging the airport and village homes in the surrounding area into darkness.

Mother of 3 Held For Abduction of 10-Week-Old Infant

BALTIMORE, Oct. 20 (AP)—Weeping happy tears, pretty Mrs. Dolores Mezzanotte was reunited at police headquarters today with her ten-week-old baby girl who had been abducted from her carriage 21 hours before.

In a corner of the room, her head bowed, sat Mrs. Leona Sheffield, a 46-year-old mother of three children who police said will be charged with carrying off tiny Jo Ann.

It was on a bed in Mrs. Sheffield's suburban home that officers found the baby, Captain of Detectives Henry J. Kriss said.

Baltimore Police Commissioner Hamilton R. Atkinson himself brought the sleeping child to Mrs. Mezzanotte and her husband Michael, a Pennsylvania railroad freight handler. Both were worn out by a nightlong vigil.

ATKINSON'S APPEARANCE with the child in one hand and a milk bottle in the other put a dramatic climax to an intense manhunt aided by an observant housewife with a memory for numbers.

Mrs. Frances Kucinski was one of several residents who observed a woman lose some clothing over the wall of a cemetery near their home. The garments were found to be those of little Jo Ann.

Mrs. Kucinski gave police a description of the woman and also a few digits from the license plate of the black sedan in which the stranger drove off.

Coupling the numerals with registration files, police got on Mrs. Sheffield's trail, Captain Kriss said.

Jo Ann was taken from her carriage at the door of a drug store. The abduction occurred in a busy shopping center.

Capt. Kriss said Mrs. Sheffield told of having family troubles and figured a new baby might fix things.

Federal Agents Nab No. 1 Dope Peddler

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—A Brooklyn man, said by Federal authorities to be the "biggest narcotics operator" in the United States was held today after he allegedly sold heroin to a Federal agent.

The man, identified by authorities as Arnold Romano, 34, was accused of selling eight and one-half ounces of the drug to the agent Tuesday. He was held on a charge of illegal possession of narcotics. The authorities said he was the leader in a nationwide ring.

A second Brooklyn man, identified as Victor Tramaglio, 38, Romano's cousin, was arrested later on a charge of acting in concert with Romano in the illegal possession of narcotics.

Assistant District Attorney Paul E. Reilly said at Romano's arraignment that the defendant is "the biggest narcotics operator in New York City and the biggest in the country." Romano was held without bail for Grand Jury action.

Col. Garland W. Williams, area director for the Federal Narcotics bureau, said the heroin sold by Romano was 99 per cent pure and was worth $10,000 in its present state.

When mixed with other materials and sold to addicts, the drug could bring $40,000 to $50,000, Williams said.

He said the alleged ring with which Romano was associated sold drugs on the East and West Coasts.

Reds Pass Out Guns to Berlin Police As Anti-Communists Express Fears

Welles Says If Soviets Provoke War, Dictatorship Might Fall

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Sumner Welles said tonight that if Russian leaders start what the Russian people believe is an unnecessary war of conquest it "would bring about the downfall of the present Soviet dictatorship."

The former undersecretary of state sharply criticized American foreign policies which he said "are in danger of becoming the hand-maiden of the armed forces."

He said he does not believe war inevitable, although a Soviet decision to risk war this year is "conceivable on the ground that conditions might later be still less favorable."

But, he added, "We have reason to believe that the individual Russian longs for peace, and that unless the Russian people can be persuaded that their country is the victim of aggression, their involvement by their government in a war of conquest would bring about the downfall of the present Soviet dictatorship."

WELLES SAID President Truman's briefly-held idea of sending "a high American official" (chief Justice Vinson of the Supreme court) to Russia to talk to Premier Stalin was a mistake. He said the task "would have challenged the combined qualifications of John Quincy Adams, Canning and Talleyrand."

Welles said the military point of view has become predominant in forming our foreign policy, and said six men have been responsible for it. All but one of them, he went on, "speak for, and in the name of, the armed services."

He referred to the National Security council which in addition to President Truman, includes Secretary of State Marshall, Secretary of Defense Forrestal, Secretary of the Army Royall, Secretary of the Navy Sullivan, Secretary of the Air Force Symington, and Arthur M. Hill, chairman of the National Security resources board.

Isolation Has No Spot in U. S., Dewey Says

By The Associated Press

Governor Dewey declared last night that "there can be no isolation for America."

We have learned that "once and for all," he said, through two wars "and the anxieties of a peace that is not peace." He delivered the address at the New York Herald Tribune forum in New York.

The GOP presidential nominee made this major speech while his Democratic adversary took campaign time out. President Truman was busy with office duties at the White House prior to the final whirl of speeches before election day.

Dewey climaxed a discussion of conservation needs with his references to the international situation. "Nothing is so important in that cause (world peace) as a strong United States of America," he said.

"Peace will never be bought with appeasement," he counseled. "The peace of the world will only be secure when the forces on the side of peace are stronger than the forces on the side of evil."

Renewing his unity-for-peace appeal, Dewey said: "Let us act decisively to arouse and strengthen and solidify the free world so that the forces making for peace will be more powerful than the forces making for war."

Delegates at Legion Convention Demand Outlawing of Communism

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 20 (AP)—The American Legion today called for the outlawing of Communism in the United States and vigorously applauded Gov. Earl Warren of California who voiced support of universal military training.

Settling down to business after a night of fun-making, the 30th National Legion convention adopted a strongly-worded resolution on Americanism recommending continuation of loyalty checks and the establishment of a civilian board for investigating "every employee or applicant to the Federal government."

It asked that all members of the Communist party, including their "sympathizers who have engaged in disloyal and treasonable acts, be expelled from government service; that indictments be issued, and that the Department of Justice prosecute to the fullest extent of all existing statutes."

IT CALLED FOR stamping out "in all schools, colleges and universities the operations of American Youth for Democracy or any successor organizations at our various educational institutions."

Warren, Republican vice presidential nominee, was the first of half a dozen national figures who addressed the second general session of the legion's 30th national convention.

"Every American should be trained to do his part in the protection of his home as well as his nation," he said.

"This plan is already being prepared in the Russian zone today," he declared.

REDS LAY DOWN CONDITIONS FOR BERLIN ELECTION

Russian Commander In German Capital Lists Points That Must Be Met

BERLIN, Oct. 20 (AP)—The Russian commander in Berlin, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, tonight laid down four conditions which apparently must be met before Soviet occupation authorities will agree to the Berlin city elections scheduled for Dec. 5.

Kotikov's statement, carried by the Soviet licensed news agency ADN, listed these conditions:

1. Alleged restrictions on free German trade unionism must be removed along with restrictions on committees of the German popular movement for the unity of Germany.

2. Alleged persecution of German democratic organizations and their members must be discontinued, and especially those persons "are to be released from detention who were arrested for propaganda for the unity of Germany."

3. "Organizations in Berlin of a militarist or Fascist nature are to be dissolved. Militarist and Fascist propaganda in the press is to be discontinued and warmongers are to be stricken from the election register."

4. Unity of the municipal organs of Berlin and especially the "unity of the Berlin police is to be restored after cleaning the police of Fascist and military elements."

Fighting Spreads in Holy Land As Jews Ignore Cease-Fire Order

TEL AVIV, Israel, Oct. 20 (AP)—Fighting flared with new violence in Southern Palestine tonight as the Israeli cabinet met without acting on the United Nations Security council's cease-fire order.

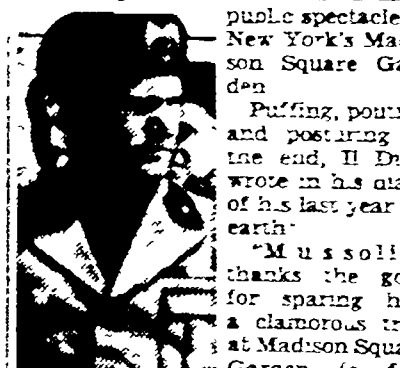

All Arab countries will join in the present Palestine warfare as the result of Israel's continued "aggression" against Egypt and disregard of the cease-fire order, Abdul Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary-general of the Arab league, told newsmen Wednesday night in Cairo. A 35-minute air-raid alert was sounded tonight in the Egyptian capital.

The cabinet adjourned for a recess tonight without reaching a decision on a cease-fire order, although earlier the foreign office had told U. N. representatives the time and date an Israeli cease-fire would be effective.

A Jerusalem dispatch said the fighting had spread to southwest of Jerusalem where Egyptian and Israeli forces were reported locked in bloody fighting for the past five days. The battle began with a full scale Jewish attack on the Egyptian-held towns of El Walaja and Snarafa, the dispatch said, when three Jewish battalions attempted to encircle the Egyptians at Bethlehem and Beit Jala south of Jerusalem.

Diary Reveals Mussolini Feared Trial in Madison Square Garden

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Benito Mussolini, scorn of his grandeur and aloof in captivity with his memories, apparently had a brooding fear that some day he would be tried in a public spectacle at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Mussolini

Puffing, puffing and posturing to the end, Il Duce wrote in his diary of his last year on earth.

"My soul thanks the gods for sparing him a clamorous trial at Madison Square Garden (a fate worse than being hung in the tower of London) and for letting him live out the last act of the drama that involves his native land."

There is nothing particularly startling in Mussolini's notes. The book is, however, an interesting historical document and a revealing picture of Mussolini's incurable love for Mussolini.

The Duce traces his downfall to intrigues of the monarchy, and to King Vittorio Emanuele, with whom he appeared to have shared a healthy mutual dislike.

Mother Bears Child As 2 Sons Perish

BIXBY, Okla., Oct. 20 (AP)—Mrs. Grover Alexander gave birth to a daughter in a Claremore hospital today about the same time her two small sons perished in a fire which destroyed their rural home near here.

Four-year-old Kenney Alexander and his brother, Tom, aged one, were left alone in the frame dwelling when their 14-year-old sister, Janice, crossed the road to a grocery store.

The father, operator of a cafe at the Pumpkin Center community five miles north of here, was in Bixby on an errand.

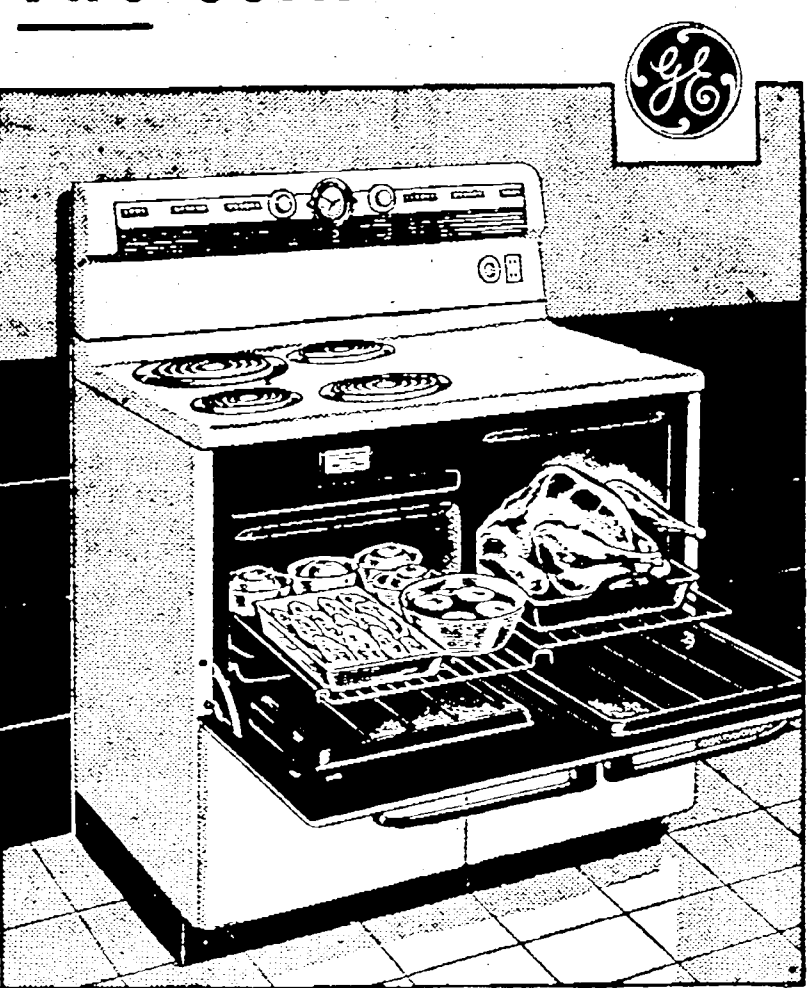

When Janice emerged from the store, she found her home enveloped in flames.

Mrs. E. K. Johns, a neighbor, said Janice tried futilely to get into the house to the children. The girl's eyebrows and hair were singed by the fire but she was not injured.

Local School Board To Probe Purchase Of Church Property

After a two-hour discussion last night, members of the Boyertown school board decided to authorize Borough Solicitor H. Leon Breidenbach to investigate the possibilities of purchasing a 600-foot plot of the controversial "church" property fronting on Third street.

The property under discussion was originally willed to St. John's Lutheran and the Good Shepherd Reformed churches in Boyertown. Both owners have recently decided to put the property up for public sale on Nov. 13. The property will be offered in packages of 600-foot each, of which the one fronting on Third street is of interest to the board.

Literature Division Of Woman's Club To Meet

The first meeting of the literature division of the Boyertown Woman's club will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 26 at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. C. W. Klime, 338 West Philadelphia avenue.

Members of the club have been urged to bring clothing or other items to the homes of Mrs. William Engel, 27 East Fourth street, and Mrs. Sterling Keller, 720 East Philadelphia avenue, for the Rummage Sale which will take place in Pottstown at the YWCA building, Oct. 29.

We Cannot Teach Cold People Democracy Dr. Weber Tells Century Club Members

"We cannot teach hungry, starving and cold people democracy; we must practice it," Dr. Gustave Weber, of The Hill school, asserted to members of the Century club at their meeting yesterday afternoon in library hall.

Continuing, he declared, "The people in Germany are in desperate need of food and clothing, and have the greatest appreciation and gratitude to the people of this country for the help that has been given. They are constantly amazed that boys, who, out of necessity helped destroy the country, would return to help rebuild it."

He pointed out that none of the children under 15 or 16 years of age wear shoes all summer, and about 62 percent of the German children are suffering from tuberculosis.

"Women in Europe," he maintained, "work harder than men in this country; they work from dawn until dusk."

HE SPOKE of the treatment these people have received at the hands of the Russians, which is unbelievable, but added that the Russians are no more responsible for the deeds of crime committed by their government, than were the people of Germany for the acts of which Hitler was guilty.

Dr. Weber, together with the nine college boys who joined in his European trip, represented the organization known as "Experiment in International Living." The organization sent 375 young people to European countries, having them live with families in the foreign countries for one month. The second month they lived together and traveled by bicycle through the various lands.

The purpose of the trip by Dr. Weber and his group was to help rebuild shattered Germany. They assisted with the rebuilding of the girl's dormitory at the University of Munich, after hauling away piles of rubble. It is estimated that it will take 50 years to clean out the rubble without rebuilding the 40 percent destruction of Munich.

EACH BOY LIVED with a different family. Dr. Weber stated that he had met but twice in the five weeks he lived with the family he was assigned to.

In celebration of United Nations week, Mrs. C. Arthur Palmer, chairman of International Relations, explained the meaning of the United Nations charter signed three years ago. She claimed that the theme of the Federation of Women's clubs, "Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace," was closely allied to the preamble of the charter of the United Nations.

During the business session, at which Mrs. Carson C. Potter, president, presided, announcement was made of the Montgomery county federation meeting Friday at 10:15 o'clock in the Grace Presbyterian church in Jenkintown.

THE MAIN SPEAKER will be Mr. C. William Duncan, who will talk on "How the American people will react to national and international issues." Members are asked to take a box lunch.

A dessert bridge is planned for Nov. 8 in the club rooms. Mrs. James Wilke, ways and means committee, announced a rummage sale Tuesday in the YWCA building.

Miss Jean Basset reminded members to make reservations with the hospital committee. Mrs. John G. Ludwick and Mrs. Fred Kulp, co-chairmen, for the next meeting, Nov. 3, which is a tour through the Morristown High school with lunch served at the cafeteria. Transportation is in charge of Mrs. Walter Krause.

Mrs. Charles Baylor announced the Town Hall programs, with a request for more memberships.

When masks were removed, the following in the children's classifications were awarded prizes: Best dressed, single, The Mae Phillips; couple, Nancy McElroy and Shirley Keller; funniest couple, Alice Mae Bauman and Ruth Gorman; smallest and youngest, Bobbie Yocom, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Yocom.

Judges were Mrs. Edna Shinehouse and Mr. Raymond Evans. Following the unmasking, a short business session was held with Mr. Wilmer Hahn conducting the devotionals. Mrs. Raymond Evans stated that the recent rummage sale netted $78. Later Mrs. Lawrence reported on the recent state convention.

Square dancing, with Mr. Luther Schmitt calling the dances, Mr. Samuel Hanna at the piano and Mr. Robert Marrett strumming the guitar, was enjoyed. The party closed with refreshments served by the hospitality committee.

Escaped Mental Patient With Nazi Phobia Caught After Burning Home, Firing on Law

AFTON, Pa., Oct. 20 (P)—A former mental patient with a Nazi phobia who sought to kill a neighbor couple was captured today after a 20-hour search.

He submitted meekly after burning down one farm home, threatening the occupants of another, firing six shots at a sheriff, and wandering around the countryside during an air-ground manhunt.

Sheriff J. R. Ewing said J. B. White, 25, was arrested under a railroad bridge five miles south of Afton at about 4 p. m.

White surrendered to Highway Patrolman Cletus Stangl. He offered no resistance but carried an unloaded rifle and had shells in his pocket, Stangl said.

A POSSE HAD surrounded White after a tip from the Rev. Ralph Hinde, Arthur Aungst and Herman Conrad.

Conrad, who lived near White several years ago but didn't know the young man was being sought, had lent him his rifle.

The gun with which White sent a series of bullets through the windshield of a car containing Sheriff Ewing, Deputy William Hower, and White's father had been taken from him last night.

The sheriff said White was disarmed by A. E. Lacina after White broke into the Lacina farm home and poked a rifle into Lacina's ribs. Lacina did not know White had been sought after burning down the Carl Christianson farm home. Lacina "kicked him out" after taking the gun away, Ewing said.

LACINA SAID THAT when White awakened him he said, "I want that Swastika." When Lacina replied there was "no such thing around this house," White responded, "Yes, you do—it's upstairs in the drawer," Lacina related.

Ewing said that in a note White left in his parents' home in which he penned the threat to kill the Christiansons, the young man made rambling comments to the effect he suspected some of his neighbors of being Nazis. White's parents notified the sheriff and the Christiansons on finding the note and the latter took refuge with a neighbor.

The sheriff said White, who graduated from Afton High school in 1942 with an excellent scholastic record, was committed to the Clarinda State mental hospital in 1945 after hitting his father with a jack handle. He later was released on parole.

RAF Asks for Falcons To Clear Airlift of Birds

BERLIN, Oct. 20 (P)—The British Royal Air Force appealed tonight for protection of Berlin airlift planes against birds.

An application was sent to London for falcons to scare away the huge flocks of birds which have become a "potential hazard" to planes landing or taking off from Berlin's Gatow airport.

The RAF, British officials said, has trained groups of the fierce, bird-killing falcons to do such work. So officials here asked that some of these falcons and their trainers be sent to Gatow.

Written by baseball's beloved hero before his death

"I like to see kids get a break,"

SAID THE LATE BABE RUTH
Former Yankee star

I SUPPOSE most kids don't give too much thought to parents—unless they don't have 'em. I was an orphan myself, so I know.

And I suppose no future major leaguer, sliding into home plate on a sandlot, ever thanked God for his legs—but he would if he'd ever had to wear steel braces, like so many kids do.

I like to see kids get a break. And every day thousands of them are getting that break through the Red Feather services of the Community Chest.

Maybe it's in the form of a loving foster mother or dad . . . maybe it's the finest medical care when he's sick . . . maybe it's the training and example of clean living and straight thinking he gets in a "Y" or a scout troop . . . Maybe it's the fun of a summer camp. Whatever it is, it's a swell break, and I'm for it. Everybody gives, they say, to the Community Chest campaign. And it's easy to see that when youngsters in a town get a chance to grow up with love and happiness in their lives, everybody in that town benefits.

So you don't have to BEG me to give. I'm proud to have the chance.

Everybody benefits...Everybody gives

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By SHEPARD BARCLAY

Dummy Emancipated

At last the dummy is really in the game. He has been emancipated by the new laws, which took effect officially on October 1, and now has many rights he did not have before. He is no longer a mere puppet in the hands of the declarer, but a player in his own right. The new laws regarding him follow the same common sense lines as the rest of the new regulations.

As before, the dummy is supposed to lay down his hand after the opening lead, then refrain from comment and taking any active part in the play. But, unless he forfeits his rights, as he does by looking at any card in any other player's hand, he is allowed to give or obtain information as to fact or law, question any player regarding a revoke, draw attention to any irregularity, or try to prevent one, such as a lead out of turn, by calling the players' attention to the fact that he is apparently about to commit one.

If the dummy, however, should purposely see any of the cards of the declarer or either defender, and thereafter is the first to draw attention to a defender's irregularity, the declarer may not enforce any penalty, if he warns declarer not to lead from the wrong hand either defender may specify the hand from which the declarer shall lead, if he is the first to see the card. If a play from his hand is a revoke, and the card in consequence is withdrawn, either defender may require the declarer to substitute his highest or lowest correct card.

A card in any hand is played when named as the one its owner proposes to play, unless its designation is changed practically in the same breath. A card in any unplayed hand is played when it touches the table face upwards after being detached from the other cards with apparent intent to play, a defender's card so detached is also played as soon as his partner sees its face. A card in dummy or any other faced card is played when touched unless for a purpose other than play, either manifest or mentioned. A played card may not be withdrawn except in compliance with laws governing irregularities.

If a defender prematurely leads to the next trick before his partner has played to the current trick, or plays out of rotation before his partner has played, the declarer may require the defender to play his highest or lowest card of the led suit or, if unable to follow suit, then a card of another suit, except "pass." If a defender has played from both his hands, he may ender may play before his partner.

Any lead out of turn may be treated as a correct lead and must be if the other side plays a card before attention is called to the irregularity. If the declarer exposes his hand after an opening lead by the wrong defender, and the dummy has spread any of his cards, the dummy becomes the declarer. If either defender requires declarer to retract his lead out of turn, the wrong card is replaced and if declarer has led from the wrong hand he must lead from the correct hand and, if he can a card of the same suit. A defender's drawing attention to declarer's lead out of turn is equivalent to requiring its retraction.

If the declarer requires a defender to retract his lead out of turn, when it is declarer's lead the card led becomes a penalty card, and when it is the other defender's lead the declarer may either forbid the lead of that suit and allow the card to be picked up or else may treat the card as a penalty card and allow any to be led a lead or play simultaneously with another's proper lead or play is deemed to be subsequent, and if a defender leads or plays two or more cards simultaneously, he may pick either and the other becomes a penalty card.

TOMORROW—Exposed and penalty cards a defender's improper exposure of his hand and revokes by the declarer or defenders.

20-Cage Games Scheduled for Trojans

GOODMEN OPEN
'48-'49 SEASON
HERE ON DEC. 7

Trojans Face Doylestown
In First Game; Hazleton
Newcomer on Schedule

A 20-game basketball schedule has been arranged for Pottstown High's Trojans this year. Athletic Director Edward Y. Good announced yesterday. Ten games will be played at home and the other ten will be played on foreign courts.

Games with three former Pennsylvania schoolboy champions, Hazleton, Allentown and Norristown, highlight the Pottstown schedule. Norristown is the defending State champion.

Hazleton and Doylestown are newcomers to the Trojan schedule this year, replacing Glen Neer and Ambler. Doylestown comes to Pottstown for the first time since 1930 to open the season here Dec. 7. Hazleton will be here for a game with the Trojans Jan. 25.

After releasing the basketball schedule yesterday, Good, who is also basketball coach at the local institution of learning, said, "This is the toughest schedule I've had since I began coaching in the high school. You can see there are three former State champions and a lot of other teams from the East Penn and Central Penn leagues, which are sometimes regarded as the strongest schoolboy leagues in the state."

POTTSTOWN will start the 1948-49 season with seven non-league games with strong teams. After those seven tussles, the Trojans open their bid for the championship of Section Three in District One, PIAA, against the defending champions of West Chester here Jan. 7.

Other teams in Section Three are Phoenixville, Coatesville, Berwyn and Downingtown. The Trojans will play two games with each league opponent.

Bethlehem and Allentown return to the Pottstown schedule after a one year absence. The Trojans dropped Bethlehem off their schedule the past year voluntarily, while Allentown was dropped off the schedule because of a PIAA ruling.

Allentown was barred from PIAA basketball the past year because of using ineligible players while winning the State championship two years ago. Allentown was reinstated this year and Good said he was glad to have the Canaries back on the list.

THE GOODMEN will play Bethlehem twice. Allentown has been scheduled for only one game.

Good is starting his seventh year as basketball coach at Pottstown High. In the past six years, with Good at the helm, the Trojans have won the Section Three title twice and have finished second four times.

The Trojan mentor has already started basketball practice at the Pottstown Junior High palestra. Basketball players who are not members of the Trojan grid team started workouts the past week and Good plans to hold daily practices for the rest of the season.

The schedule:

Pirates Sign Casey For Relief Next Year

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20 (AP)—Fireman Hugh Casey today joined the Pirates baseball family and the question immediately arose.

Who will relieve whom in the task of putting out opposition batting blazes?

Bucco General Manager A. Roy Hamey gave this answer: "Casey will bring up the rear. We want him for those eighth and ninth innings."

The 35-year-old righthander announced via telegram that contract terms offered him as a free agent were acceptable. He had been cut adrift after the 1947 season by the Brooklyn Dodgers, for whom he toiled with eminent success since 1939 as a relief pitcher.

Madison Square Garden Backs Jacobs in Promoting Feud With Rival Tournament of Champions

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Powerful Madison Square Garden threw its corporate strength squarely behind Mike Jacobs today in the latter's gathering struggle to retain his boxing monopoly against the challenge of the Tournament of Champions.

Ned Irish, Garden vice president, told a luncheon gathering that Jacobs' 20th Century club would be backed in its battle against any opposition "to the limit of the Garden's resources—which are considerable."

By coincidence (or perhaps not) the pledge of allegiance from the nation's greatest boxing center came the day before the rival Tournament of Champions holds its first indoor show tomorrow night at Jersey City between Tippy Larkin and Charley Fusari.

The occasion was a luncheon in honor of Harry Markson, who has just been appointed managing director of the 20th Century in an obvious effort to inject new life into an outfit which has been somewhat moribund since Jacobs, himself, became ill two winters ago.

MARKSON, getting away fast, told the city's boxing writers that he was launching an elaborate scheme to import a shipload of the most promising fighters in Europe to bolster the native stock. His emissary, Lew Burston, is leaving in two days to begin rounding them up.

"There's no use kidding ourselves," Markson said candidly.

Army Leads in Race For Lambert Trophy

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Unbeaten Army remained at the top of the Lambert Trophy race today, but by only a single point over equally unbeaten Penn State. The Lambert Trophy is awarded annually to the football team voted the best in the East by writers, coaches and broadcasters.

This week Army has 984 points, Penn State 983. Penn is third with 978.

Washington State Tackle Is Named Lineman of Week

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—Lauri Niemi, Washington State college tackle, was named this week's college football lineman of the week.

He was selected on the basis of his sterling performance in State's upset victory over the University of Washington. He received the most votes of the 25 players nominated in the Associated Press poll.

The star from the Pacific Northwest this joins Alex Scarsian, Northwestern center, who a week ago was named lineman of the week.

SARKISIAN was nominated again this week, but many observers of the Northwestern-Michigan struggle thought Michigan's center, Dan Dworshak, had a wee bit better of the duel.

Chuck Bednarik, Pennsylvania's All-America center, played a whale of a game against Columbia. He achieved the ambition of every lineman—to score a touchdown. It came on a blocked kick.

In the South Bill Healy, Georgia Tech guard; Bill Warde, North Carolina guard; Asner Wingo, Louisiana State end; and Bernie Watts, North Carolina State guard, were pointed out as outstanding.

TALES—A. M. Washington State, Clark Cornell, State, Michigan, Stanford, Hutchinson, Chatanoor, Stanford, North Carolina, Brandy, Southern Methodist, Texas, So. Adams, Utah, Koele, Wisconsin.

GUARDS—Paco Stracuse, Healy, Georgia Tech, Lynn Miami (Fla.), Watts, North Carolina State, W. Lee, Michigan, Banks, Iowa, Brown, Texas, Christian, Ward, North Carolina, Doolitt, Colorado A. & M., Yates, Denver, Davis Miami (Fla.).

CENTERS—Linsinger, Ohio State, Police, Indiana, Brown, Michigan, Bednarik, Pennsylvania, Sarason, Northwestern, Harris, Texas, Watson, Rice, Dwyer, Michigan.

ENDS—Rienburg, Michigan, Stone, Iowa, Northwestern, Wingo's, Louisiana State, Huey, Michigan, State, Copeland, Texas Aggies, Abshire, Colorado A. & M.

Babe Sharkey to Wrestle In Reading Armory Friday

READING, Oct. 19—Babe Sharkey, one-time ruler of the wrestling realm, will make his first appearance of the 1948-49 season in the Reading Armory Friday night when he takes on Hans Kampfer, veteran St. Louis professional, in the main event of the 25th show of the current season. Sharkey, who lost the scales at more than 240 pounds, lost a heated decision to Ferno Carnera in his last Reading showing last May.

In the six main event appearances here the past year, Sharkey pinned Big Ben Morgan in one major and pinned him to a draw in another. He also tawed Kampfer and Wladimir (Iron) Tabin. He has lost here only twice. His first defeat came when he was disqualified in a match with Reading's own Martin Mercer and his second setback came at the hands of Carnera.

Kenny Ackler, latest importation from the West coast, will battle Johnny Churchill, a Californian, in the 30-minute limit semi-windup on Friday's main event.

It will be the third straight appearance in the Armory for Schwed-gart and Steinborn in a team match. The pair pinned Joe Kammaroff and Jim Szyskay two weeks ago and flattened Kampfer and Fred Carrone the past Saturday night.

It Stan Stress, former Villanova gagger who was graduated in 1941, is trying his hand at coaching this year. He is going to tutor the Philadelphia Naval base team.
